

Directions for Wilderness Awareness School's Campus

Our campus consists of 60 acres of mature and second growth forest as well as a pond and wetlands. The campus is adjacent to private and state forest lands of the Cascade foothills.

Physical Address: Main Parking Area - Coho Ridge: 20121 320th Ave NE Duvall, WA, 98019

Contact Information: 425-788-1301; wasnet@wildernessawareness.org

Coho Ridge Parking: (park here if in doubt)

1. Follow directions and CONTINUE on 320th Ave. NE until you reach the gravel road.
2. Please limit your speed to 10 MPH on the gravel road to protect our students, wildlife, neighboring pets, and your vehicle.
3. Continue past the horse property and a residential house. Coho Ridge Parking is on the left. Look for a wooden Wilderness Awareness School Sign at the entrance. This is the main parking area.
4. After you park, walk down the trail marked with red bandanas to get to the main part of Linne Doran.

If directed to park at the Linne Doran Parking Lot:

1. Keep following the gravel road straight past the second Wooden WAS Sign. You will pass a driveway to the left for our neighbor "Mosswood Hollow" and a driveway to the right. (0.2 miles)
2. About 200 ft after the sign you'll see our Linne Doran parking area on the left. Please pull in and park here.
3. Walk up the gravel road and take the right fork to our campus.

To find your program location:

1. Cedar Lodge is our main indoor classroom - it's a 2-story brown building with a covered porch.
2. To get to Wolf Den (the yurt) continue on the path to the right of Cedar Lodge and take the first path to the right.
3. To get to Malalo Ya Chui, continue on the path to the right of Cedar Lodge and a few hundred feet past the Wolf Den trail to a wide trail on the right which leads to Malalo.
